ANNUAL CONFERENCE

October 24–28, 2007

Joint Meeting with the History of Education Society

THE MARRIOTT HOTEL AT KEY CENTER

CLEVELAND, OHIO
AESA

The role of AESA is to provide a cross-disciplinary forum in which scholars can gather to exchange and debate theoretical issues and empirical research that addresses the social context of education. The cross-disciplinary commitment of the organization creates a landscape for the discussion of a broad range of issues involving multiculturalism and diversity, globalization, the politics of education, and pedagogical practice.

For further information about the association, please visit our website: www.educationalstudies.org.

HOURS AND INFORMATION
Thursday: 8:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.
Friday: 8:00 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.
Saturday: 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon

We are very excited about this year's book exhibit, as we have a number of new and returning publishers, along with several planned events. Hours for the Book Exhibits Room continue to provide time both before and after sessions so conference participants have ample opportunity to attend. In addition to the publishers’ tables, AESA authors and Critics’ Selection Panel books will be on display, so please look for these special tables. Again this year we are very excited to offer the publishing workshop in the Book Exhibits Room. This is scheduled for Friday afternoon and focuses on tips for journal and book publishing. In addition, the ever-popular Book Distribution will take place Saturday at 1:30 pm. Make sure to schedule time for a visit to the Book Exhibits Room to peruse the latest publications of interest to foundations scholars.

FEATURED AUTHORS

Thursday, October 25, 12:00—1:00 p.m.

Book Signing and Chat with Author Paula Salvio
An Associate Professor at the University of New Hampshire, Dr. Salvio teaches courses in curriculum theory and qualitative research methods. Her scholarship focuses on psychoanalysis, education and women's (auto)biography. Her most recent text is Anne Sexton: Teacher of Weird Abundance published by the State University of New York Press. Join Dr. Salvio as she talks about and signs copies of her latest book.

Thursday, October 25, 7:15—8:15 p.m.

Book Signing and Chat with AESA 2007 Butts Lecturer and Author Lois Weis
Distinguished professor of Sociology of Education at SUNY—Buffalo, Dr. Weis is the author/editor of a number of texts dealing with issues of race, class, gender, education, and the economy. Her most recent works include The Way Class Works: Readings on School, Family, and the Economy and Class Reunion: The Remaking of the American White Working Class. Join Dr. Weis as she talks about and signs copies of her latest books.

2007 AESA BOOK EXHIBITS

Friday, October 26, 1:00—2:00 p.m.

Book Signing and Chat with
AESA 2007 Kneller Lecturer and Author Patti Lather

Professor of Cultural Foundations in the School of Educational Policy and Leadership at The Ohio State University, Dr. Lather teaches courses in qualitative research methods and gender and education. She is the author of numerous texts and articles, including Getting Lost: Feminist Efforts toward a Double(s) Science and Getting Smart: Research and Pedagogy with/in the Postmodern. Join Dr. Lather as she talks about and signs copies of her latest book.

SPECIAL SESSION

Friday, October 26, 4:00—5:00 pm

Navigating the Publication Process

Joel Spring, Naomi Silverman, Rebecca Martusewicz, and Sandra Spickard Prettyman

This session will focus on how to navigate the publication process. Topics for consideration will include: evaluating venues for publication and how to find the best fit for your work; preparing a manuscript for submission; understanding the publication process and timeline; understanding the peer review process and its importance; and understanding the institutional differences in publication expectations. The presenters—authors, publishers, journal editors—will share information and answer questions in an informal setting.

BOOK DISTRIBUTION

Saturday, October 27, 1:30 p.m.

The book distribution will take place on Saturday, October 27th beginning at 1:30 pm. Graduate students will be allowed to enter from 1:30 to 2:00 p.m. After this, the book distribution will be open to graduate students and faculty members. Suggested donations for this year's distribution are $8.00 for graduate students and $10.00 for faculty members. We are able to accept checks and cash only, so come prepared. Look for more information about the Book Distribution in the Book Exhibits Room.
