

AESA
American Educational Studies Association

SPECIAL NOTICE

Subscribe to:

EDUCATIONAL THEORY

(in addition to your Educational Studies subscription)

First published in 1951, this publication has long served as an important forum for scholarship and debate in the foundations of education. While Educational Theory has always had a central concern with issues in the philosophy of education, its scope of theoretical work is much broader than that and it has always been a venue where philosophers and theoretically inclined scholars from other educational disciplines engage in a shared conversation about educational ideas, values, and policy issues. Now supported by the American Educational Studies Association Educational Theory has moved from strictly disciplinary to increasingly interdisciplinary modes and has sought to represent the best of both discipline-based and interdisciplinary scholarship. Indeed, for us these have never been conflicting purposes; the best interdisciplinary work always has a strong disciplinary core. Educational Theory is owned and operated by the University of Illinois, and published in partnership with Blackwell Publishing.

Name: _____

Affiliation: _____

Address: _____
(location you would like to receive Educational Theory)

Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

Educational Theory* Special Rates for AESA members!!!

2008 One Year Rate = $20.00 -- (a $56.00 value)

This special rate includes print and online access and is for current AESA members only

Total Enclosed: $ _____

Check #: _____

Make check payable in U. S. Dollars to: AESA

Please send this form with your check to:

Rhonda Jeffries, AESA Secretary
Dept. of Instruction and Teacher Education
Wardlaw College of Education
University of South Carolina
Columbia, SC 29208